BONUS STORY | EPISODE 1

Up the Old Oak Rope Ladder

As golden sunset painted Whispering Woods in shades of peach and honey, MJ checked his trusty brass pocket compass and pointed straight up into the branches of the Great Singing Oak.

"Everything is ready for our first Treehouse Lantern Night!" cheered Nano in his bright orange hoodie, scampering halfway up the sturdy wooden rope ladder. Above him on the balcony, Kuttu held a warm glowing lantern, while Oreo carried the picnic basket and tiny Mickey waved from atop Oreo's fluffy head!

Can you spot MJ's brass compass, the woven picnic basket, and count all 5 friends?

Paper Lanterns & Dancing Fireflies

Together on the wide wooden treehouse deck, the five friends hung round pastel paper lanterns along the railing. One by one, the lanterns began to shimmer like tiny moons among the rustling oak leaves.

Suddenly, dozens of golden woodland fireflies drifted up through the branches to say hello! One curious little firefly hovered right beside Oreo's nose, making Mickey clap his tiny pink paws with delight.

How many glowing paper lanterns and twinkling fireflies can you count in the tree?

Warm Honey-Cocoa Under the Stars

When the silver crescent moon rose high above Whispering Woods, Kuttu spread out their softest woven blanket on the deck and poured steaming mugs of sweet honey-cocoa - including a tiny thimble-sized mug just for Mickey!

Wrapped shoulder-to-shoulder in a warm friendship hug with golden berry muffins to share, the five best friends whispered stories under the stars, knowing that wherever they were together, they were home.

★ LOOK, FIND & COUNT! ★

Can you find Mickey's tiny thimble mug of cocoa and the plate of golden berry muffins?
